

GREATER NEW ORLEANS YOUTH ORCHESTRAS

Now in its 18th season, the Greater New Orleans Youth Orchestras (GNOYO) is an independent nonprofit organization whose mission is to engage, educate, and foster music awareness across the community.

Young musicians, ages 7 to 19, are placed by audition in GNOYO's challenging and rewarding orchestral programs. Five orchestras and three outreach programs are offered:

- Symphony
- Philharmonia and North Shore Philharmonia
- Sinfonia and North Shore Sinfonia
- Young Artist Academy
- Chamber Music Groups
- Endangered Instruments Program

Each season, GNOYO also presents an annual Young Soloists Concerto Competition, three major performances, community outreach concerts, and summer programs. Participants significantly improve individual performance and ensemble skills, while developing the attitudes and discipline that help them take initiative in their schools and community.

Recent seasons have included a concert at Carnegie Hall, a five-city tour of France, and collaborations with the Louisiana Philharmonic Orchestra and the New Orleans Ballet Association. GNOYO is the proud recipient of the 2006 Coming Up Taller Award and Governor's Arts Award in Arts Education.
